Required Documents (Continued)

Italian nationals should prepare the following documents

1) Required below in Japan - export

- ☐ Photocopy of passport (photo page) ☐ Copy of itinerary (e-ticket)
- ☐ Tax number (CODICE FISCALE)

2) Required below in Italy - import

- ☐ Self-declaration (DICHIARAZIONE SOSTITUTIVA DI CERRIFICAZIONE)
*You will be asked to fill in a form that we will send you.
- ☐ Certificate of residence (RESIDENZA or REGISTRO DELLO STATO CIVILE)
- ☐ Proof of residence in Japan (CERTIFICATO DI AIRE)
*Application must be made at the Italian Embassy or Consulate in Japan.
- ☐ Italian Certificate of Residence (CERTIFICATO DI RESIDENZA)

* Things to note.

'About the tax number (CODICE FISCALE)'.

- A tax number (CODICE FISCALE) can be applied for and obtained by a representative resident in Italy, even if the person has not entered Italy. The number can be applied for at the tax office and obtained on the same day. A visa is always required for the procedure.

It takes about four months to obtain the original PERMESSO DI SOGGIORNO

- In some cases it can takes more than a year to obtain this certificate, so make sure you keep the receipt you receive from the post office at the time of application. This receipt should have the same validity as your ID card (Cartad'identita) until you obtain your residence permit, so make sure you carry it with you at all time.

About RESIDENZA (RESIDENZA) You can apply for it after obtaining the original residence permit.

- For passengers staying in Italy for more than one year from the date of issue of this document, baggage will not be eligible for duty-free treatment. Baggage is subject to taxation.
- You can apply for this document after you have obtained your original residence permit. In some cases, a translation of a copy of the family register (or extract of the family register) in Japan may be required when applying, so it is recommended that a copy of the family register (or extract of the family register) is obtained in advance before leaving Japan.

Others.

- If you have been in Italy for more than a year in the past, please contact us in advance.
- If you plan to send more than one shipment by sea, please inform us in advance when you pick up the first shipment and inform us of the expected number of shipments and the approximate volume of the shipment.
